

Information on HIPAA Privacy

Privacy & HIPAA - Home

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)

The Title II provisions of HIPAA, known as the Administrative Simplification regulations, mandate:

- National privacy standards for the creation, use, disclosure, and retention of patient identifiable health information; and
- Data security and integrity requirements for the maintenance and transmission of patient information.

For more HIPAA details, visit the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights \(OCR\) website.

This webpage and the material contained herein are provided as a public service for informational purposes only. It should not be considered legal advice or opinion; and, unless expressly noted, does not reflect official CNMI WIC Program policy.